

SECURITY FREEZE INFORMATION

Any consumer in Delaware may place a security freeze on his or her credit report by making a request by mail to each consumer reporting agency. If the consumer reporting agency has procedures for accepting the request by phone, Internet, or fax, then the consumer may also use one of these methods to make the request. The consumer reporting agency may not charge a fee to victims of identity theft. To avoid paying a fee, victims must send a valid investigative report, an incident report, or a complaint with a law enforcement agency about unlawful use of the victim's identifying information by another person.

Individuals who are not victims of identity theft must pay a fee of $20 per person, per consumer reporting agency, to place a security freeze or to replace their PIN. A consumer reporting agency may not charge a fee for a one-time reissuing of the PIN, or for lifting or removing a security freeze. A security freeze prohibits, with certain specific exceptions, the consumer reporting agency from releasing the consumer's credit report or any information from it without the express authorization of the consumer.

To obtain more detailed information on how to place a security freeze on your credit reports, see below.

HOW TO "FREEZE" YOUR CREDIT FILES

A security freeze means that your file cannot be shared with potential creditors. A security freeze can help prevent identity theft. Most businesses will not open credit accounts without first checking a consumer's credit history. If your credit files are frozen, even someone who has your name and Social Security number probably would not be able to obtain credit in your name.

How do I place a security freeze?

To place a freeze in Delaware, you must write to each of the three consumer reporting agencies. There is a $20 fee to place a security freeze. There will be no fee if you provide proof that you are a victim of identity of theft.

Write to all three addresses below and include the information that follows:

Equifax Security Freeze

P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348

Experian Security Freeze

P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013

Trans Union Security Freeze

P.O. Box 6790
Fullerton, CA 92834-6790

For each, you must:

- Send a letter by mail, or by other methods allowed by the consumer reporting agencies;
- If you are a victim of identity theft, you must include valid investigative report, incident report, or complaint with a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft;
- Provide your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.) address, Social Security number, and date of birth;
- If you have moved in the past 5 years, supply the addresses where you have lived over the prior 5 years;
- Provide proof of current address such as a current utility bill or phone bill;
- Send a photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
- Provide payment by check, money order or credit card (Visa, Master Card, American Express, or Discover cards only).

How long does it take for a security freeze to be in effect?

After three (3) business days from receiving your request, the consumer reporting agencies listed above will place a freeze on your account.

After five (5) business days from receiving your request, the consumer reporting agencies listed above will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep this PIN or password in a safe place.

Can I open new credit accounts if my files are frozen?

Yes. You can have a security freeze lifted for a temporary period of time. There is no fee to either temporarily lift the security freeze or allow a specific creditor to access your credit report. The steps to do so are as follows:

- Contact the credit reporting agencies above;
- The manner by which you contact them is determined by them, but it may be by way of telephone, fax or over the Internet;
- You must provide proper identification;
- You must provide your unique PIN or password;
- You must provide during what time period your credit report will be accessible (for example, August 1 to August 5), or include the party for which you want the security freeze lifted (for example, Sears).

How long does it take for a security freeze to be lifted?

Credit bureaus must temporarily lift a freeze no later than three (3) business days from receiving your request. However, a consumer reporting agency must temporarily lift a security freeze under reasonable circumstances within fifteen (15) minutes if the request is received via telephone or the electronic method selected by the agency within normal business hours.

What will a creditor who requests my file see if it is frozen?

A creditor will see a message or a code indicating the file is frozen.

Can a creditor get my credit score if my file is frozen?

No. A creditor who requests your file from one of the three consumer reporting agencies will only get a message or a code indicating that the file is frozen.

Can I order my own credit report if my file is frozen?

Yes.

Can anyone see my credit file if it is frozen?

When you have a security freeze on your credit file, certain entities still have access to it. Your report can still be released to your existing creditors or to collection agencies acting on their own behalf. They can use it to review or collect on your account. Other creditors may also use your information to make offers of credit. Government agencies may also have access in response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.

Do I have to freeze my file with all three credit bureaus?

Yes. Different credit issuers may use different consumer reporting agencies. If you want to stop your credit file from being viewed, you must freeze it with Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion.

If more than one person in my household wants to request a security freeze, do we each have to request a separate security freeze?

Yes. Because each person has an individual credit history and credit reporting file, each person must make a separate request to place, temporarily lift or remove a security freeze. Each person must also pay any applicable fees.

Will a freeze lower my credit score?

No.

Can an employer do a background check on my credit file?

Yes. There is an exemption for non-credit related use of your credit report.

Does freezing my file mean that I won't receive pre-approved credit offers?

No. You can stop the pre-approved credit offers by calling 888-5OPTOUT (888-567-8688). You can also do this online at www.optoutprescreen.com. This will stop prescreened offers. It is good for five years or you can make it permanent.

What law requires security freezes?

The current law on security freezes in Delaware is Title 6, § 2203 et seq.

IDENTITY THEFT

In order to better protect yourself, it is helpful to know some of the ways identity thefts can occur. Thieves:

- Steal wallets and purses containing personal identification and credit/bank cards.
- Steal mail, including bank and credit card statements, pre-approved credit offers, new checks and tax information
- Complete a change of address form to divert mail to another location.
- Rummage through trash, or the trash of businesses, for personal data in a practice known as “dumpster diving”
- Find personal information in homes
- Use personal information individuals share on the Internet
- Send e-mail posing as legitimate companies or government agencies with which individuals do business.
- Get information from the workplace in a practice known as “business record theft” by stealing files out of offices where a person is a customer, employee, patient or student, bribing an employee who has access to personal files, or “hacking” into electronic files.

HOW TO AVOID IDENTITY THEFT

All consumers should take the following steps to prevent identity theft from occurring:

- Review Credit Reports from each of the three major credit bureaus once a year.
- Place passwords on your credit card, bank and phone accounts.
- Secure personal information in your home.
- Ask about information security procedures in your workplace.
- Don't carry your social security card with you; leave it in a secure place.
- Don't give out your social security number unless it is absolutely necessary; ask to use other types of identifiers when possible.
- Don't give out personal information over the phone, through the mail or over the internet unless you have initiated the contact or are sure you know with whom you are dealing.
- Guard your mail and trash from theft.
- Destroy offers of credit received in the mail that you do not respond to; you may choose to opt-out of receiving free offers of credit.
- Carry only the identification information and the number of credit/debit cards that you actually need.
- Pay attention to your billing cycles—follow up with creditors if bills do not arrive on time.
- Be wary of promotional scams.
- Keep your purse or wallet in a safe place at work.
- Notify your credit card company if you are planning to travel out of state.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF IDENTITY THEFT

If you are a victim of identity theft, or believe you may be a victim, it is important that you take the following steps:

- Place a fraud alert on your credit reports and review your credit reports
- Place a security freeze on your credit reports.
- Close any accounts that have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.
- File a police report and ask for a copy for your records
- File a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission and the Attorney General's Office.
- Write down the name of anyone you talk to, what s/he told you, and the date of the conversation.
- Follow-up in writing with all contacts you have made about the identity theft on the phone or in person. Use certified mail, return receipt requested, for all correspondence regarding identity theft.
- Keep all copies of all correspondence or forms relating to identity theft.
- Keep the originals of supporting documentation, like police reports and letters to and from creditors; send copies only.
- Keep old files, even if you believe the problem is resolved. If it happens again, you will be glad you did.
